Thomas Danik, Market President, joins Memorial City Bank's new Katy Loan Production Office

(Houston, Texas – Sept. 26, 2013) Memorial City Bank has announced the appointment of Thomas Danik, Market President, to the Bank's Katy Loan Production Office (LPO). The new LPO plans to open in October, and is located at 16300 Katy Freeway, Houston, Texas.

A resident of Katy for 10 years, Danik has worked for community banks and large nationwide banks during his 18 years in the industry. His diverse background includes Commercial Lending, Private Banking, SBA Lending and Retail Banking.

At Memorial City Bank, Danik will concentrate on serving the Katy and West Houston quadrant of the city with healthcare lending, commercial lines of credit, equipment financing and owner-occupied or investment real estate.

"I'm passionate about building a personal relationship with each client that fosters timely action and enhances their ability to achieve financial success," says Danik.

Outside of work, Danik is a Board member of the Katy YMCA and is an active booster and volunteer with Seven Lakes High School. He is also a past volunteer coach with various youth sports leagues in Katy. He loves the outdoors and enjoys watching Katy-area sporting events with his wife and two sons.
